

Dear Friends:

NOTABLE RESEARCH OF THE WEEK

Cohabiting Women Are Less Interested in Sexual Intercourse

Men and women living in the UK with their partner report less interest in sexual intercourse than those in steady relationships who do not cohabit. This is particularly true for women, report researchers at the University of Southampton and the University College London in England.

NEW INSERT TO MARRIPEDIA THIS WEEK

Entry Update: Effects of Religious Practice on Family Ties

Religious Americans tend to have more frequent contact with their family, and report satisfaction with their family life.

Continue reading...

BLOG: Culture and the Success Sequence

Culture and the child are interdependent. But seeing that the overall culture and cohesion of the US has significantly decreased, where do young folk go to imbibe the culture that guides them on these paths of human flourishing?

Continue Reading...

With an eye to the child, the future of America,

Pat Fagan, Ph.D.

Director of the MARRI Project

The Catholic University of America