Dear Friends:

THE TWO-WAY LINK BETWEEN PORNOGRAPHY AND ABORTION

Pornography consumption has been found to predict support for abortion. National panel data also showed that, in turn, support for abortion was linked to a more liberal sexual script which was linked to higher uses of pornography. Continue reading...

TEEN SMARTPHONE USERS ARE LESS HAPPY

A significant increase in smartphone use by teenagers is linked to dramatically lower levels of happiness. The more time spent on-screen, the lower the levels of self-esteem and life satisfaction. Teenagers who spent the smallest amount of time on-screen were the happiest. Continue reading...

BLOG: SMARTPHONES VS. THE MOST IMPORTANT PEOPLE IN EXISTENCE

The two findings above link increased digital involvement with relational outcomes that no one wants: abortion and unhappiness. The digital world is a two-edged sword. We know its benefits, but increasingly we are getting to know it's down-sides. Japan, one of the most digitally saturated of societies, is experiencing one of technology's noxious digital byproducts.
