

Dear Friends:

NOTABLE RESEARCH OF THE WEEK

Income, Poverty and Health Insurance Coverage in the U.S.

Between 2015 and 2016 median household income increased by 3.2 percent, the proportion of Americans in poverty decreased by 0.8 percent, and those without health insurance decreased by 0.3 percent, according to the latest Census Bureau report.

NEW IN MARRIPEDIA THIS WEEK

ENTRY UPDATE: Effects of Marriage on the Economy

Marriage benefits the U.S. economy on the micro-level by building human capital and expanding mobility, and on the macro-level by circulating money more and by reducing poverty. Continue reading the latest research updates...

BLOG: Difference Between the Individual and the Person: Proposition

The difficulty with sociology is that it mainly deals with individuals and rarely with persons. An individual is one among many. A person is unique – unique to those who know him and relate with him. Continue Reading...

With an eye to the child, the future of America,

Pat Fagan, Ph.D.

Director of the MARRI Project

The Catholic University of America