RELIGIOUS PERSECUTION: PEW RESEARCH

The Pew Research Center is a major social science resource for the nation. Its Religion and Public Life sector has produced some very informative and tellingly illustrated reports. Earlier this year they released Restrictions and Hostilities around the World. It is worth noting that in this ranking the U.S. does not rank number one in religious freedoms. More of Pew's research on religion can be found here.

NOTABLE RESEARCH: LONDON SCHOOL OF ECONOMICS

Mental Health and Worship

According to a study of depression among older Europeans, becoming a part of a religious organization is more beneficial than charity work, sports or education in improving the mental health of participants. Read the article here.

MAPPING AMERICA: RELIGION AND EDUCATION ATTAINED

A Consolidation on Religion and Education

Over time we have produced several Mapping America's on education. Today we give a small collection of these.
