

A Baby and the Baby Jesus: With Both Sets of Parents!

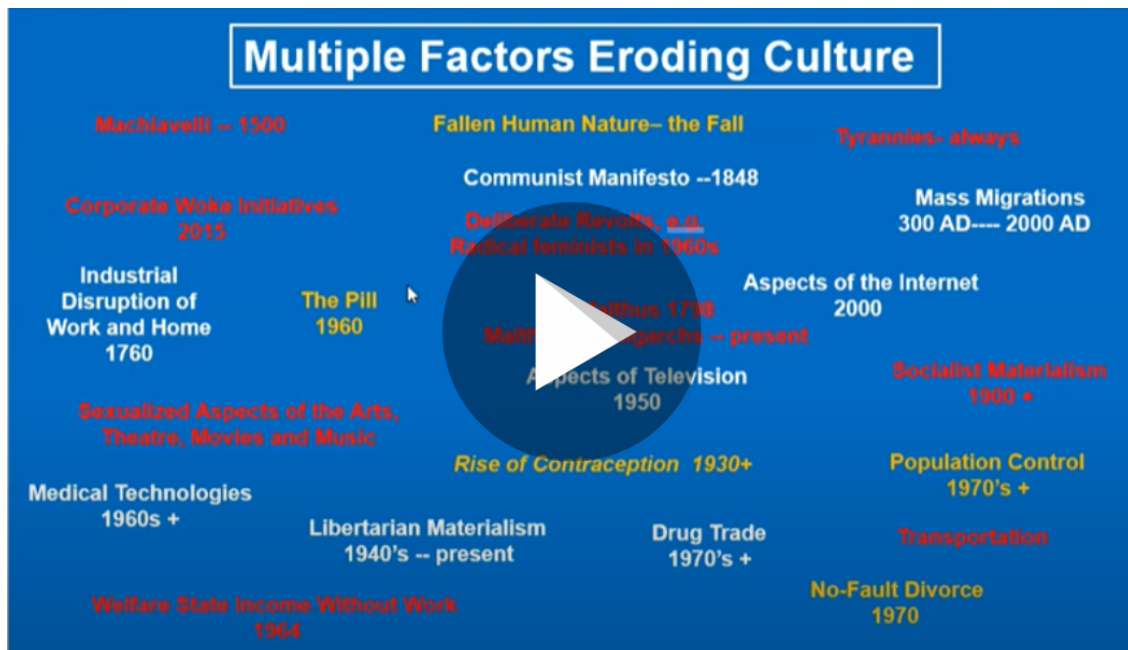

MARRI has been reframing its future work, building on the implications of the work it has done over the last 10 years. Today's video lecture presents this reframing to which our future work will be devoted, through networks of fathers and husbands dedicated to raising strong children who in turn will marry a spouse and worship God together for the rest of their lives, men who give their lives in service to their wives, their children, and their God. In this they will be the best employees any firm could wish for and the best citizens any nation would love to have.

Rebuilding a culture takes centuries, not decades, but building a network of local families can be achieved in a few years -- even a few months. MARRI will begin this work soon, but first, add to its website the best resources already available for the heavy lifting involved in creating a great marriage and a great family.

We look forward to a great New Year and wish all our readers the joys and blessings of the season of Christ's birth...the celebration of the beginning of a universal culture of belonging to each other and to Him.

Pat Fagan Ph.D.

Building a Culture of Belonging in Marriage and the Family

For more information about Healthy Marriages, please visit Marripedia.org

