Minor Children in Same-Sex households

By comparing the number of minor children in same-sex households in 2013 (225,000) with the number of minor children in the United States in 2013 (73,600,000), we estimate that 0.3% percent of United States minor children are living in same-sex households.

SOCIAL SCIENCE AND SAME-SEX MARRIAGE

A Sad Day for the Social Sciences

Clearly influenced by the “authority” of ASA and NCFR, the Supreme Court did not even acknowledge, and thus suppressed, the contrary social science evidence presented to them. If you celebrate the Supreme Court’s ruling, do not celebrate the social science, it had nothing to do with it. Read the entire blog post here.
